of Boston, the highest point of land in the eastern part of that State. Of cities thus designated Milwaukie recalls its original name, meaning "rich lands," and Sing Sing, the the Algonquin word Asinsing. "a place of stones." Other names, however, have more or less picturesqueness in their meaning, and are not so easily improved by recent changes. Thus Chicago represents in its French propulation very fairly the actual sounds heard by the first French explorers, when the Possible Alexandria Gazette, a newspaper published eastern part of that State. Of cities thus deby the first French explorers, when the Po- the Alexandria Gazette, a newspaper published tawatomois, who dwell there, called it Shecaugo, in the city of Alexandria, once a week for four "playful waters," (?) Dahlonega is the softened form of the Talauneca of the Cherokees, which meant "yellow metal," for the Indians were well aware of the gold found in the neighborhood, which made the city in later years the ceat of a Government mint, because of its happy position in the very centre of the gold-mine district of Northern Georgia. Lake Eric is almost the only remainder now of the once powerful tribe of Erie, who lived where the State of Ohio now is; the latter name, as given to the river, owes its origin to the Iroquois, who called it the Ohco, "beautiful water," by the same instinctive admiration which prompted the French to name it La Belle Riviere. It had a lucky escape from Father Marquette's baptism, who christened it Ruaboukigon-a name which subsequently shrunk into Ouabache, and finally as Wabash has been given to the last tributary of the Ohio, Neagara, the original word, taken from the Seneca-Iroquois dialect, has no connection with cataracts, but means prosaically, "across the neck," alluding to the course of the river across the neck or strip of land that lies between Lakes Erie and Ontario. A similar idea underlies the word Mitchikan in the Ottawa dialect, which was originally given to Mackinac, and meant "fences," as if the island were lying fencelike before the Upper Lake. At leas, so says Rev. Mr. Pierz, a missionary among the Ottawas; but Allouz, his French predecessor, calls it, a few years before, Machihiganing; the present word, Michigan, is evidently an improvement upon both the former names.—Schele De Vere.

TO CONTRACTORS.

Sealed proposals will be received by the undersigned, a committee of Alexandria Washington Lodge, No. 22, A., F. & A. M., for the erection and completion of their LODGE BUILD-ING, on Market square, according to plans and specifications furnished by Adolf Cluss, architect. These plans can be seen at the store of Joseph Hopkins, No. 5 north Fairfax street, who will explain to bidders any portion of them not fully understood.

The bids must be made out on a form furnished by the committee, and endorsed "Proposals for the erection and completion of Washington Lodge Building," and handed in on or before 12 o'clock, Thursday, February 15th, 1872.

VIRGINIA: At Rules held in the Clerk's office of the Circuit Court of Alexandria FRIDAY EVENING. JANUARY 26,

INDIAN NAMES.—In some instances it is a special matter of regret that the Indian names of places and States no longer suggest their original meaning. This was occasionally simple enough, as in Connecticut—originally written Quonaughticot—which meant in the Mohegan dialect "long river;" and in Massachusetts—in the Natic dialect Massasuset—signifying "the place of great hills," with reference to the Blue hills, eleven miles to the southwest of Boston, the highest point of land in the their priorities; also to ascertain the amounts due on the several deeds of trust, executed by

DUBLIC NOTICE.

This is to notify my friends and the public generally that I am now prepared to furnish them with STOVES OF ALL DESCRIP-TIONS, having made arrangements with the manufacturers which will enable me to sell at rates as low as the same articles can be obtained in the Northern cities. My stock is large. My experience of 30 years in the business, with my personal attention, I think entitles me to claim of the public a liberal patronage. My aim and object is, as it has always been, to deal faithfully with all, and give full value for their money.

I would request of all in want of a COOKING STOVE to call and examine my cooking stove and prices before purchasing elsewhere. I also call attention to BIBB'S HEATER,

For heating 3 rooms, the best Fireplace Heater, I think, that is made. Warranted in every case to act well. My stock of stoves and tinware is too varied to mention, but I would invite all in want to call and examine for themselves.
